It is an immortal poem in white marble and is the finest expression of love of an emperor for his queen. Located on a bank of River Yamuna, it was built by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his beloved wife and Queen Mumtaz Mahal in 1631, who died giving birth to his child and whose last wish to her husband was "to build such a tomb in her memory which the world has never seen before." It took over 17 years, 22000 workers and 1000 elephants to build the wonderful mausoleum.(Taj Mahal Closed on Friday) Later visit to Agra Red Fort.

Agra Fort- A massive red-sandstone fort located on the banks of River Yamuna was built under the commission of Emperor Akbar in 1565 and was further built by his grandson Shah Jahan.
