Have breakfast at the hotel and depart for the airport, take a flight to Srinagar (flying about 1 hr 30 minutes) On arrival in Srinagar, You will be greeted & start drive to Srinagar for 35 minutes.

Srinagar is the largest city and the summer capital of Jammu and Kashmir, India. It lies in the Kashmir Valley on the banks of the Jhelum River, a tributary of the Indus, and Dal and Anchar lakes. The city is known for its natural environment, gardens, waterfronts and houseboats.

The drive takes you past the Abdullah bridge which connects the banks of the Jhelum river, snaking its way towards the North-Western frontier of Kashmir. Arrive and check in at Deluxe Houseboat. Early Lunch at Deluxe Houseboat.

Proceed for sightseeing for Shalimar Garden, Chashmashahi & Nishat Garden. Shalimar Garden: (Shalimar Bagh - Garden of Love) is the famous royal garden of Kashmir. The name Shalimar "abode of love" may be derived from the name of the structure built by Pravarasena II in the 6th century AD, when the garden was a sacred Hindu site. Emperor Jahangir was so enamored with the garden that he called it "one of the sights of Kashmir".

Nishat Garden (Nishat Bagh - Garden of Happiness), the second largest garden in Kashmir Valley, after Shalimar Bagh and one of the most tourist attractions in Srinagar (Spring from mid-March to mid-May will have Tulip Festival). Guests enjoy a garden with a seasonally changing landscape "yellow maple leaves in autumn" or "white snow cover the garden in winter".

These gardens were Mughal Emperors concept of Paradise and today these are popular picnic spots.

Also visit a handicraft shop where you can purchase local Hand Crafted items-Shawls, Jackets, Bed Covers, Paper Mache, Carpets & much more, In the evening leisurely stroll alongside the Dal Lake exploring the local markets. Agra is a city offering a discovery of the beautiful era. Agra has a rich history, reflected in its numerous monuments dotted in and around the city. The earliest citation for Agra comes from the mythological era, where the epic Mahabharata refer Agra as 'Agravana' meaning paradise in Sanskrit. 'Ptolemy', the famous second century A.D. geographer, was the first person who referred Agra with its modern name. The Modern Agra was founded by Sikandar Lodi, ruler of Lodi dynasty in 16th century. It was when Shah Jahan descended the Mughal throne that Agra reached the zenith of architectural beauty. Overnight at Hotel.

Day 06: Agra/Jaipur by Surface (Approx 255 Kms / 4.5 Hrs)

Breakfast at hotel. Morning Half day sightseeing of Taj Mahal & Agra Fort. Visiting Taj Mahal "The embodiment of all things pure", said Rudyard Kipling on Taj Mahal's beauty and that is no wordplay as the Taj is undoubtedly a pure epitome of beauty. It is an immortal poem in white marble and is the finest expression of love of an emperor for his queen. Located on a bank of River Yamuna, it was built by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his beloved wife and Queen Mumtaz Mahal in 1631, who died giving birth to his child and whose last wish to her husband was "to build such a tomb in her memory which the world has never seen before." It took over 17 years, 22000 workers and 1000 elephants to build the wonderful mausoleum (Taj Mahal Closed on Friday)

Agra Fort A massive red-sandstone fort located on the banks of River Yamuna was built under the commission of Emperor Akbar in 1565 and was further built by his grandson Shah Jahan. The fort, semi-circular on plan, is surrounded by a 21.4 m high fortification wall.

Drive to Jaipur.

Jaipur founded in AD 1727 by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, Jaipur, the capital of Rajasthan is popularly known as the Pink City. With broad avenues and spacious gardens, the city is steeped in history and culture. Here the past comes alive in magnificent forts and palaces, blushed pink, where once lived the maharajas. The bustling bazaars of Jaipur, famous for Rajasthan jewelry, fabric and shoes, possess a timeless quality and are a treasure-trove for the shoppers.

ruling royal family which lives in a private section of the palace. Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II is credited with building most of the structures, but it was expanded upon by later rulers as well. The City Palace Complex includes the Diwan-E-Am (Hall of public audience), Diwan-E-Khas (Hall of private audience), Mubarak Mahal (the palace of reception) and the Maharani's Palace (the palace of the queen). Mubarak Mahal now houses the Maharaja Sawai Man Singh II Museum and displays a vast and unique collection of royal costumes.

Amber Fort, (pronounced Amer) is at a distance of about 11 kilometres from Jaipur. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, it was the bastion of the Kachwahas of Amber, until the capital was moved to the plains, to what is today Jaipur. The palace, located in craggy hills, is a beautiful melange of Hindu and Mughal styles. Raja Man Singh I began construction in 1592 and the palace, which was built as a strong, safe haven against attacking enemies, was completed by Mirza Raja Jai Singh
